The list of the specific new items needed are posted along with the collection box found on the Mission Wall table. Items include: unsharpened pencils, blue or black pens, rulers, blunt scissors, 16 or 24 count crayons, erasers and 70-sheet college-ruled notebooks. This ministry assists our global neighbors with a reminder they are not alone as they deal with chronic poverty. Education is such a strong tool to help break the cycle of poverty for children and in some cases adults. Your help is needed and appreciated. Questions? Community Lenten Lunches The Hilton Community Churches will be holding Lenten Lunches together each Wednesday during Lent. All are welcome to come for a nice lunch and program. The lunches this year will be held at St. Leo’s Church at 12:00 p.m. Each week will feature a different Pastor, including Pastor Ball, sharing from a portion of the Beattitudes and how Jesus calls us to live in our post-Christian culture. We would love to have you come to this free event as we gather with our brothers and sisters in Christ in the Hilton Community!	“In today’s Gospel, Jesus quotes Deuteronomy 8:3 in declaring that we do not live by bread alone. In the eucharist, ordinary bread becomes an extraordinary gift of grace, received in faith and through faith: real food that nourishes our soul.”
